

Keire Murphy

References for the presentation:

Report on attitudes: <https://www.esri.ie/publications/attitudes-towards-immigration-and-refugees-in-ireland-understanding-recent-trends-and>

Community-level drivers, which we just published a working paper on: <https://www.esri.ie/publications/community-level-drivers-of-attitudes-towards-immigration-in-ireland>

Statistics were from various sources: annual report 2022 – <https://emn.ie/publications/annual-report-on-migration-and-asylum-2022-ireland/the> - 2023 version will be published in December. There are more up to date statistics on the ESRI website: <https://emn.ie/statistics/>

The violent extremism work was an amalgamation of sources:

https://www.kofiannanfoundation.org/wp-content/uploads/2024/05/Empowering-young-people-to-prevent-violent-extremism\_web.pdf

<https://www.gcerf.org/>.

Page 11 of their strategy sums up the factors they have summarised as drivers: <https://www.gcerf.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/12/GCERF-Strategy-2025-English.pdf>.